

AUSIT National Council

Protocol for sending Call for research participants to AUSIT members

Approved at 24 March meeting

- AUSIT welcomes research into Interpreting and Translation and will willingly cooperate with researchers to disseminate calls for participants for research projects that meet the following criteria:
 - The researcher is either a research student enrolled at an Australian or overseas university or is an employee of an Australian or overseas university or other non-for-profit research institution
 - The researcher has received ethics clearance from Human Ethics Research Committee of their relevant institution
 - The researcher provides AUSIT with the relevant research Information Sheet and Consent forms together with the approved Call for participants poster
 - The research study is directly related to Interpreting and/or Translation
 - AUSIT is informed of the results of the study. This should preferably be in the form of a short article in the InTouch magazine, or as a short report sent to the General Secretary
- The Call for participants may be posted on the AUSIT e-bulletin, included in the President's monthly e-flash and may also be sent as a separate e-flash if it missed the deadline for inclusion in the President's e-flash.
- The researcher will send the request to the General Secretary at secretary@ausit.org.
- If the researcher is an AUSIT member, s/he can post the request on the e-bulletin directly with the required relevant information
